Healthful, Wholesome, & Humanely Raised

Organic Prairie animals are humanely raised in harmony with nature by the same independent co-op of farm families who produce Organic Valley foods. We've been leading the way to healthy, wholesome, organic meat since 1997.

Organic Prairie prohibits the use of synthetic hormones, pesticides, or antibiotics and we provide our livestock only 100% certified organic feed and pasture. Animals enjoy fresh air, sunshine, and plenty of room to roam.

- Animals that are pasture-grazed are happier and healthier.
- Pasture-based organic farming is gentler on the earth and better for the environment.
- Diverse sustainable family farms promote the well being of animals, soil, rural community, the planet, and you.
