

FAMILY FARMERS WORK WITH YOU

We have two pricing options to suit our customers' needs.

F.O.B. PRICING

Lowest possible price. When customers handle shipping arrangements, they save on handling and warehousing fees.

Freshest possible produce. Skip the middle man and get your produce fresh from the source! Pick up your order from its origin at regional production locations.

Fill trucks—save money. Load 'er up and reduce the cost of shipments from outer regions.

DELIVERED PRICING

Hassle Free. The buyer's job is easier when Organic Logistics™ takes care of the shipping.

No surprises. Everything's included. This is the exact price of the produce delivered right to your door.

Convenience. Twice-a-week delivery to most regions is your guarantee for quality, fresh produce from family farms.

Make it a combo! Organic Valley produce orders can be bundled with all other Organic Valley products, including dairy, soy, juice, and eggs.

Our Organic Promise

We, the Farmers of Organic Valley, honor the interdependency of all life. We produce delicious organic foods without antibiotics, synthetic hormones, pesticides, or fertilizers.

FRESH FROM OUR FAMILY FARMS

Welcome to our organic farms—

the fields are small, the soil healthy, and a tradition of seasonal, sensational flavor has come back to the table!

- Our produce is available year 'round. Organic Valley Family of Farms is a national cooperative of local family farms—it's always harvest time somewhere.
- Our trucking subsidiary, Organic Logistics™, ensures the most efficient shipping. Fresh, vibrant produce means satisfied customers—we're farm-fresh as it gets.
- Our experienced sales team brings knowledge rooted in farm production and post-harvest handling—expertise that means quality on your shelf.

We're owned by farmers. We are America's largest organic farmer cooperative. Our network of sustainable, family-owned farms grows nature's very best produce.

Sensational Flavor! Organic agriculture guarantees the best possible flavor. Our farms are free of synthetic herbicides, pesticides, and fertilizers. Discover the heart of flavor provided by the organically nurtured plots of Organic Valley farmers.

Biodiversity. Our fields contain a balance of crop varieties. Organic Valley produce farmers have pioneered and perfected careful, sustainable-scale organic methods for twenty years.

Working in harmony with nature. We till the nutrients of composted organic matter back into the earth. We rotate crops to build healthy soil for the future. Together, we honor the interdependency of all life.

USDA Organic. All of our produce is grown under the strict regulations of the Federal Organic Rule, legislation we helped to establish.
